The book's narrative is deceptively easy. Joseph has a small overcoat, a treasured possession that becomes progressively smaller as he grows. Each instance he outgrows it, Joseph adapts the coat, sewing to it, changing it to something unique – a coat for his toy, a section for a creature, and eventually, a item for a toy. This process of change reflects not only Joseph's growth but also the repetitive nature of life itself. Taback masterfully intertwines this basic narrative with visually amazing illustrations that convey the feeling of each moment with remarkable exactness.
